VOL. 2, NO. 1

MIRROR, ALTA., NOVEMBER 8, 1912.

5 CENTS PER COPY.

Personal Paragraphs

Mrs. H. C. Neis is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. M. Jewell.

Dave Lockman, proprietor of the Winnipeg hotel, Lacombe, is spending a few days with W. J. Kadlec.

Jno. Herniman and son, R. H., made a business trip to Stettler this week.

Mrs. A. L. Barton returned on Friday last after a six weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Lidgerwood, N. Dak.

J. and Mrs. Felton went to Red Deer this (Friday) morning to visit Mrs. Felton's sister, who is sick.

MOCK PARLIAMENT

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend the opening session of the Mock Parliament on Thursday evening, Nov. 14th, in the Methodist church. The Speech from the Throne will be presented by the Lieutenant-Governor.

FISHING IN BUFFALO LAKE

Some fine sport has been indulged in by a party of gentlemen now staying at the Grand view hotel, Lamerton. Messrs Grouse and Ghent of Wetaskwin and Mr. Smith, of Strathcona, are included in the party, and with "dim" Kadlec as guide and dispenser, the company have been having an enjoyable time. The catch so far numbers some where around 1,000—ranging in weight from two pounds up to ten pounds, and are of the pike and jack fish variety.

WILSON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF U. S. A.

As a result of the elections in the United States, Nov. 6th, Wilson is elected president by an over-whelming majority. The returns give president elect Wilson 387 certain votes in the electoral college; Col. Roosevelt 80; and president Taft, 12.

TRADE NOTES

The Mirror Cash Store are advertising some special bargains in groceries, dry goods, and hardware, at their store in Lamerton.

A large shipment of crockery and glassware has been received by Duitman & Johnson.

A guessing contest will run by Suggett Bros. for the next two months. A $50 diamond ring will be awarded to the winner.

Paisley & Fraser, auctioneers of Lacombe, will sell by public auction on Wednesday, Nov. 20, the stock, implements, &c., belonging to Mrs. Westhead.

Five charges have been laid against the secretary of the town of Wainwright, and he was given to Nov. 1st to clear matters up.

SHERIFF STEARNS' COUNTY MINN., IN MIRROR

INTERESTED IN BRICK-MAKING. ATTRACTED BY THE BRICK CLAY DEPOSITS IN THIS DISTRICT

B. J. Moritz, of St. Cloud, Minn., and sheriff of Stearns county, Minn., paid a visit to Mirror last Tuesday and attended a meeting of the Board of Trade in search of information regarding the town and surrounding country.

Mr. Moritz is acting as the representative for a number of wealthy gentlemen in his home town, who wish to branch out on a large scale in their respective lines. A wholesale distributor is anxious to secure a location; also a rancher, who intends going into the horse-raising industry extensively.

The large deposits of brick clay in this neighborhood attracted the attention of Mr. Moritz, who is an expert in this line, and it is quite possible that he will make a further investigation with a view to opening a plant near Mirror.

EVENTS AROUND TOWN AND DISTRICT

Returns From Grading

Frank Tullock returned yesterday (Thursday) with his grading outfit, from Delburne, after one month's work at that point.

Ill With Typhoid

Miss Gertie Phelps, who has been working at Red Deer, is ill in the hospital with typhoid fever. Her many friends will wish her a speedy recovery.

On Investigating Tour

Inspector Hefferman, of the R. N. W. M. P., Stettler, was in town on Thursday last, on an investigating tour. Application has been made by the local authorities to have a member of the Police force stationed at Mirror, and the visit of Inspector Hefferman is the outcome of this request.

Attend the Dance on Monday

The ladies composing the Mirror Library Club, are doing everything in their power to make the dance in Robinson's new store, Mirror, a great success. Don't fail to attend on Monday evening, Nov. 11. The surplus will go towards purchasing new books for the library, and is deserving of your support.

Builds Fine Hen House

Mah Bing has just completed a large hen house at the rear of his restaurant. Mah says he is going to have "cheekens all the time."

Halloween Passed Off Quietly

Thursday of last week was the annual evening for mischief-makers, but outside of a few minor affairs the evening passed off rather quietly in Mirror.

Concert at Alix

The Metropolitan Ladies' Orchestra, of Chicago, will appear in Alix, on Saturday evening, Nov. 9th. A dance will be given at the close of the concert.

Store Being Moved

The general store building of Edward Maurer is now on rollers and part way on its journey to the new location on Lake st. The job of moving it is quite an undertaking.

Hockey and Skating Meeting

A meeting will be held in the Printing Office on Saturday evening, Nov. 9th, for the purpose of organizing a hockey and skating club. Everybody interested is requested to attend. Meeting at 8 o'clock.

Very Few Prairie Fires

The season so far has been very free from prairie fires. It is to be hoped that the farmers will use every precaution in starting fires and that railroads will also exercise due care. Apart from the fact that it gives the country a desolate appearance the fire robs the cattle of much valuable fall feed.

First Skating of the Season

A number of the young people have been enjoying a skate on the slough just south of the G. T. P. station.

Soloist at Methodist Church

Fred. Harris, baritone, a pupil of Madame DeWittney, Toronto, will be the soloist in the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Mr. Harris has sung in some of the biggest churches in England and Canada.

A Masonic ball will be given in Alix in December. Preparations are now under way.

BOARD WALK FOR THE SOUTH SIDE OF LAKE STREET

Grading Finished For This Season

An eight-foot board walk will be built on the south side of Lake street, from Roome avenue to Carroll ave. Crossings will also be put in at Roome, Gilman, Carroll and Francis avenues.

Owing to the frost now being in the ground it will be impossible to carry on any more grading, and the balance of the work, as outlined by the Council will have to be left over until next spring. The work already accomplished has made a noticeable improvement in the appearance of Lake street.

MIRROR, ALTA., NOV. 8, 1912

ONE YEAR OLDWe are pleased to lay before our readers the fact that this week, THE JOURNAL, commubrates its first anniversary.
During the past year we have passed through many differentphases, and it would be hard to associate our town with that, in which one year ago we set up our type with hopes for the future, which we are glad to say, have not been blighted.We wish to thank those who have advertised in our columns, and while thanking them for their past support, which, needless to say, has been a large factor in the maintenance of THE MIRROR JOURNAL, we would esteem it a favor if they would continue to use us as an advertising medium in this district.During the coming year we confidently look forward to a much larger expansion in the growth of the town and district. With the introduction of the telephone, the improvement of old and opening up of public highways, the building of a grain elevator, and the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway into Calgary, the town next year will have taken very rapid strides on the road to prosperity.THE JOURNAL will endeavor to keep before the public, the fact that Mirror is situated in one of the finest mixed farming districts of Alberta, and also of the development and progress that will undoubtedly follow.A WISEACRE NO LONGERA man in a neighboring district, a regular wiseacre, wanted to buy a buggy. He wrote to a mail order house for a catalogue and in the meantime went out shopping among the implement stores of a neighboring town. He was "just looking around," so jotted down notes of prices and makes of buggies.When the catalogue arrived he did some comparing, smiled a knowing smile, went to the post office, purchased a money order and sent it to a catalogue house, and if he were several dollars in pocket over the transaction.In course of time the freight agent notified this good man that his buggy was at the freight house, and if he would come in and pay the transportation charges the buggy would be his.
He went, but imagine his chagrin when he found out that the freight on the buggy had reduced his supposed gain to a diminutive loss of $10.This wiseacre was a wiseacre no longer, and so the story goes right along; sometimes the people find it out, sometimes they don't; anyway that is the reason catalogue houses can afford to build million dollar buildings, which is ample evidence that they are reaping huge fortunes.BASHAW BUDGET

(Too late for last week)

A dance was held in Bashaw on Friday in aid of the Church of England and was a great success, we understand the church being twenty dollars the better for the undertaking. Another dance was held the following Monday with similar success.Very few people took advantage of the holiday on Thanksgiving Day.On Thursday, Oct. 31, a meeting of Bashaw citizens was held in the Alberta hotel, for the purpose of meeting a Mr. Samuels, from Edmonton, who represents landed interests in and out of Bashaw, and who came for the purpose of putting a scheme forward for the benefit of both the residents of this district and his own property. The theme of the scheme being better publicity. After considerable eloquence on the part of the speaker, the idea was grasped with enthusiasm, the outcome being that a Citizens' League was formed with a view to getting one and all interest-ed. The usual officers were elected and after a short discussion it was decided that each member's fee should be $2.00.
The idea of the Citizens' League to get everyone to join it and to take an active part. A general meeting is called for next Wednesday, Oct. 31st, when a program will be drawn up for further progress.A new fashion is in vogue in Bashaw nowadays. The hunter takes his spouse with him, presumably to keep her out of mischief. (The writer's spouse carries the grub basket.)The local barber has our sympathy owing to one of his younger boys having broken a bone in his leg whilst at play.
We understand the lad is progressing.We are pleased to announce that Mr. Windsor's sister is now recovering and is now about after her unfortunate accident.
Undoubtedly she had a narrow escape of being permanently disabled.Our local doctor, Jim Fraser, is away South I might tell you.
Ye me ken he is about to take unto himself a wife. There is a warm welcome awaiting the cooing pair; the Doc. being a very popular man.Splendid bugs have been registered by visiting hunters to this district, and one and all vote a return to such good sport, another season.

October 31, 1912.

BLAMING THE TOWN"This surely is a one horse town," this shiftless man asserts, then takes his seely gripack down, and packs his socks and shirts and to some other village goes to seek the shining plunk;
there he accumulates new woes and says the burg is punk. In every town, however sleek, you'll hear the failures say:
"This wretched hamlet makes us sick; we'll chase ourselves away. The poor man has no chances here, he finds no open door; the whole corrupted atmosphere make head and bosom sore." From town to town the failures drift, and finds each one the worst until at last the peeler lifts them to the jug feet first. All towns are good if you will work and try to reach the top; all towns are failure if you're a shirk whose mission is to yawn. Select a man whose heart is bold, whose courage never slumped, and he will gather fame and gold, no matter where he's dumped.
Though planted in the virgin woods, or on an island bare, you'll see him coming with the goods, and both feet in the air.
And when you hear a pilgrim wail, and blame things on his town, you may be sure that he would fail where'er he settled down.—Walt Mason.The amount raised for all purposes by the Presbyterian church in Canada last year was $4,820,062.THE CANADIAN BANK

BURIED TREASURE.

War-Time Secret Lurks In an Ontario Marsh.

Many and varied are the stories of lost treasure. It would seem almost too far-fetched to believe that in the quiet districts of Ontario there are treasure buried to find which would mean eternal opulence to the fortunate finder. Many of these stories are undoubtedly myths, but it is equally true that a goodly number are based upon more or less authentic facts, so that a story of a lost treasure that in itself endures as evidence of the wisdom of reasonableness, and is substantiated by material evidence and the word of a people yet living, may not be uninteresting.

About midway between the towns of Oshawa and Whitby, on the north shore of Lake Ontario, is situated what appears at the present time to be nothing more than a barren, black marsh, with its uninviting bog and dense overgrowth of rushes and vegetation peculiar to such places. It was not always thus, however, for many years ago this marsh area was a body of water of considerable depth, being in reality a bay of the lake.

The story goes that during the war with the United States in 1813 the British navy, while in the area, was wrecked on the shore of the bay. The ship was a schooner which engaged in carry goods from Kingston for the pay of $100,000, and was stationed at York.

The vessel was sailing up the lake before the British entered the area in the afternoon of a September day in the year 1813. The vessel was carrying a cargo of goods, and was being piloted by an American sailor. The ship was wrecked on the shore of the bay, and the cargo was scattered all about the shore.

THE INCOMING HORDE.

Juter People Pinning Homes in the Big Cities.

"Canada for the Canadians" may be an excellent slogan for political purposes, but perhaps "Canada for Canada" should prove an even better slogan. It is a motto which is in itself a nutshell on the subject of nationalism and patriotism, or apply it to the consideration of the mighty stream of immigrants pouring in at our gates from all quarters of the globe. East and south we are unquestionably getting population for the future, but are we getting, at the same time, the "Canadian for Canada"? In our dealings with the newcomers are we taking pains to ensure that they are actually the "Canadians for Canada," and not a mere incoherent mob of alien people?

Everywhere throughout the Dominion, alike in east and west, this is the insistent problem of our time. The big cities are facing it, and the smaller towns are beginning to feel its pressure.

The big cities are facing it, and the smaller towns are beginning to feel its pressure. The big cities are facing it, and the smaller towns are beginning to feel its pressure.

Patronize Home Industries...

"I do not know much about the tariff, but I do know this much: When we buy goods abroad, we get the goods and the foreigner gets the money; when we buy goods made at home, we get both the goods and the money."

THE WHITE RABBIT.

Lord Pelham Had to Wait For His Chance to Sell.

Lord Pelham lived in a castle not very far from London, near the banks of the Thames. He had the habit of taking quiet rides in the country. One day, in the year 1811, when in his way to London, he saw a man walking towards him.

"My lord," said the man, "can't you buy a white rabbit for me?" Lord Pelham shook his head and went his way without another word.

The unknown fellow then said, "My lord, you must buy my white rabbit."

"What shall I do with it?" replied the lord in surprise.

"I am certain, my lord, that you will buy my white rabbit," said the man, placing a revolver on my lord's breast.

"Well, I see I am in your power, and must buy the rabbit. How much do you want for it?"

"One hundred pounds sterling, my lord."

"One hundred pounds for a rabbit?"

"Yes, my lord. And I am a rabbit dealer."

"I don't carry so much money, but I believe it, but your signature is sufficient. I know your banker."

"I must have it," said the man.

"Paper, pen and ink. Here it is, my lord."

Lord Pelham, who saw only too well that there was no escape from this man, sat down and wrote the check. Then he wanted to continue his walk to the city, but the unknown fellow was in his way with the revolver and said, "You are mistaken, my lord, this is the road that leads to your castle. You must now bring your purchase home. Good-bye, my lord. I bid you your way and this is mine."

Pelham did not consider it advisable to continue his discourse. He took the rabbit, returned to the castle, and never said anything about the price he had paid for it.

Ten years later, in the month of March, Lord Pelham took a walk through his estate. He was dressed in a suit of black, and he carried a cane. He was walking towards a large building, when he saw a man standing in the middle of the road.

GENERAL NEWS

During next December between thirty and thirty-five old buffalo bulls will be killed at the National Buffalo Park, Wainwright. The animals will be shot down, as they are now reaching such an age that the younger bulls are liable to kill them at any time. Just what will be done with the head and skins of the animals is unknown at this time. The heads are valued at a great price, some of them having sold in the past for as much as $500. The skins too are valuable and can be made use of in many ways.

The G. T. P. have over two thousand miles of construction in progress in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. They have now reached a point nearly 1,200 miles west of Winnipeg.

Father John Russell founder of the prohibition party died at his home in Detroit, Mich. Charles Becker, the former New York police lieutenant, convicted of procuring the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, was sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison during the week of December 9th. The sentence was pronounced by Justice Goff.

District News

From Our Correspondents

SOUTH BUFFALO LAKE

Mr. Johnson returned to his home in Calgary on Thursday, after spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. J. H. Surum.

Mrs. Lulu Myers returned to Brownsfield, Alta., after spending a few weeks visiting relatives and old friends.

Miss Pearl Soym, of Alex, spent Thanksgiving Day with her parents.

Mr. Thompson, of Alex, spent Thanksgiving with J. H. Surum.

Bones.—On Saturday, Oct. 20, to Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. R. W. Barritt, a son. Both doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, of Lamerton were callers at Bert Barritt's on Tuesday.

Threshing is in full blast in this district, and a good yield of grain is being turned out.

Jno. Herminan and son, R. H. of Mirror, were visitors at Laue Olson's on Thursday.

November 2, 1912

BASHAW

The weather is keeping good for the farmers to haul in their grain to town.

B. J. Williams took a trip to Camrose, but the message that was looked for never came.

Considerable threshing has been done in this district. May the good work go on.

N. E. Ledgerwood is away on a business trip to B. C. with the hope that the trip will also prove a rest to him.

Mr. Neilson, of Wetaskiwin, has bought the Alberta hotel from P. J. Naslund. We welcome the new proprietor, but Mr. Naslund should be congratulated on the way he conducted the hotel in the past.

John Harris, our barrister, and H. T. Raymer made a trip to Edmonton on business, returning the same night.

Considering the court cases and the Citizens' League meeting tonight (Wednesday) the time will be somewhat profitable to those who attend.

Miss Wilson, of Edmonton, has taken a position as book-keeper in Stonehouse & Holt's department store.

Mr. Ledgerwood has moved into his new store, which would be a creditable building in some large city.

The concert in the Methodist church was a great success. The program was well given by the young people; some day they will be stars. Of course, the older ones taking part were expected to be good.

A. J. Whitley, J. P. of town, gave a stirring address at the Methodist church concert, the other night. His address should have been given in the hall, so that he could explain himself to the satisfaction of his hearers.

BOLTS

The wedding bell did ring on the arrival of the train on Tuesday night, when a number of both old and young folks gathered at the station to welcome the bride and extend hearty congratulations to the couple. One young young lady's remark was: "My heart goes pit-a-pat."

G. P. Smith, M. P. P., visited our town on Saturday night last, looking over the work which is being done north of town, clearing the way for telephones and good roads.

Official figures just published show that during the year ending July 31st, 1912, Canada exported 78,788,000 bushels of wheat. This was a large increase over the year previous, in which only 48,438,000 bushels were exported, while the average for the four years ending July 31st, 1910, was but 45,650,000 each year.
